C. Facts

The defendants, Morgan Stanley, Pfizer, and Robert L. Bernstein, have collaborated with the Chinese Communist government to persecute the plaintiff, Gang Liu, who is a well known Chinese dissident and has been listed on the most wanted list by the Chinese Communist due to his role in the 1989s Tiananmen pro-democratic movement.

The attached sheets 1, 2 shows that Gang Liu was a student leader and was jailed in prison for political reasons. The Chinese Communist has continuously to persecute and harass Gang Liu even he escaped to the United States for political asylum.

Morgan Stanley, the first defendant, hired Gang Liu in Aug. 2009. Since then, the Chinese government has given tremendous pressure to Morgan Stanley and forced Morgan Stanley to harass Gang Liu, and eventually fired Gang Liu without normal reasonable reasons On July 8th, 2011.

On June 28th, 2010, Gang Liu gave presentation to a group of Chinese students through teleconference as scheduled. once Liu was recognized as the Student Leader in 1989's pro-democratic movement, the Chinese students protested and boycotted the lecture given by Gang Liu. Immediately, the manager of the educational program ejected Gang Liu from the lecture. All the videos of that lecture was forced to be called back as long as Gang Liu showed up in the video. Since then, the HR represents of Morgan Stanley had meeting with Gang Liu weekly, forced Liu to report all of his activities, including posting articles on the web.

Another type of the pressure given by the China government to Morgan Stanley is Cyber attacks. Some Chinese security agents warned and threatened Gang Liu about the Cyber attacks to his employer. Gang Liu reported to HR and the Legal department of Morgan Stanley about the potential Cyber attacks from the Chinese government. However, Morgan Stanley didn't take Liu's warnings seriously. In Feb. 2011, Morgan Stanley was attacked by China-based hacker, see attached sheets 3, 4, 5.

The Cyber attacks made Morgan Stanley tremendous loss, at least multi-billion dollars. Had Morgan Stanley taken Gang Liu's warning's seriously and had taken some actions, the Cyber attacks would have been avoided. That means the tips provided by Gang Liu to Morgan Stanley worth of multi billion dollars!

After the Cyber attack, Morgan Stanley immediately took some response actions. Instead of protesting the Cyber attacker-the Chinese government, Morgan Stanley complained Gang Liu as the cause of the Cyber attack. The HR representatives frequently asked Gang Liu not expose his relationship with Morgan Stanley, not post articles to criticize the Chinese Communist, not expose the Cyber attacks against Morgan Stanley, and not expose the real reasons for the Cyber attacks.

On July 7, 2011, Gang Liu was arrested due to the false accusation from a Chinese military officer. On July 8th, 2011, right after Gang Liu's release from prison, Morgan Stanley fired Liu without any specific reasons. Being a Chinese dissident and a target of the Chinese government is the only reason for Gang Liu being fired by Morgan Stanley!

Morgan Stanley helped the Chinese government to reach one of its objectives - to fire Gang Liu. This is a "sickening collaboration" with the Chinese government and for "decapitating the voice of the dissidents" there. See attached sheet 6.

Morgan Stanley is collaborating with China in the "unrestricted war" against the United States, and thus Morgan Stanley is a treason of the United States.

Pfizer, the second defendant, hired a Chinese military officer Yinghua Guo, who used faked ID to enter the USA for special missions in the "unrestricted war" against the USA. In August 2010, the plaintiff Gang Liu reported Yinghua Guo's military background to Pfizer. However, Pfizer did not investigate Yinghua Guo's background, instead, Pfizer sent two lawyers to meet and to threaten Gang Liu.

Pfizer is collaborating with China in the "unrestricted war" against the United States, and thus Pfizer is a treason of the United States.

Robert L. Bernstein, the Chairman of Human Rights in China, continuously helped the Chinese military officer Yinghua Guo to persecute the plaintiff Gang Liu. Bernstein has been notified about the military background of Yinghua Guo. However, Bernstein has never stopped providing helps to Yinghua Guo and to collaborate with the Chinese government to persecute the plaintiff Gang Liu. Bernstein has raised large amount funds illegally to Yinghua Guo. Bernstein has also introduced Yinghua Guo to meet other high profile organizations and individuals, including Warren Buffett, Ford Foundation, Atlantic Foundation, which are all targets to be bribed by the Chinese government.

Google, the fourth defendant, has clearly claimed that Google's email system had been phishing attacked by the Chinese government and the attacks were targeting the information of Chinese human rights activists and the phishing attacks have been used to compromise the Gmail accounts of Chinese human rights activists. My gmail accounts, steelegang@gmail and gang.liu.1989@gmail were all phishing attacked by the Chinese government. The intruders used my Gmail accounts to send emails to some of my friends and made them to suffer tremendous loss. The Chinese communist also created some Gmail accounts that are similar to mines, such as steellegang@gamil.com, gang.liu.1989@yeah.net, etc. The Chinese government used to use this email accounts and pretended to be me to send emails. My Gmail accounts were also frequently accessed by some suspicious people, probably the Chinese security agents. My Gmail accounts settings are frequently changed to forward my emails to some accounts created by the Chinese government. Google also blocked a Google-blog, "unrestricted warfare", created by Gang Liu. The plaintiff Gang Liu has reported all these Google security problems to customer support team of Google, however, Gang Liu has never got response from Google.

Although Google is also a victim of the Chinese government, the security problem in Google's Gmail systems has made the plaintiff Gang Liu suffered significantly, including being arrested through false accusation by the Chinese military officers. The Chinese military officer Yinghua Guo submitted an email sent by the Chinese security agents to the New York criminal court to support her lawsuit against the plaintiff Gang Liu. Google is responsible for the plaintiff's loss and damages resulted by such false emails.

Liu Gang, a Chinese Dissident, escaped from China and arrived in the USA with the help of Clinton government after his 6 years nightmare in Chinese prison. However, his nightmare wasn't stopped. The Chinese Communist continually harass him and even tried to put him into the American prison 3 times. The Chinese Communist sent a military officer to enter the America and started an unrestricted war against Mr. Liu. Now, they are trying to kill him through the legal system of the United States.

Mr. Liu is among several politicians in China whose medical condition has drawn international expressions of concern, including, most recently, a letter to President Jiang Zemin from 54 United States senators.

Sentenced to Six Years

Mr. Liu, who had helped organize the 1989 student demonstrations, was No. 3 on a list of 21 student leaders most wanted by the authorities. After his arrest, he was sentenced on Feb. 12, 1991, to 15 years in prison for "conspiracy to subvert the Government."

In the only interview in prison with a dissident-run magazine, Mr. Liu asserted he had been "inhumanely treated" and "tortured." The magazine said the medical records of the prison showed that Mr. Liu had seen doctors 35 times for headaches, palpitation and diarrhea.

Asked what he would do at the end of his term, Mr. Liu was blunt in the language of his replies. "Liu said the army might be going to do after his discharge is to sue the officials and

March 1 (Bloomberg) — Richard Falkenrath, a principal at the Chestnut Group and a Bloomberg Television contributing editor, discusses hacking attacks on Morgan Stanley's computer network by a China-based group more than a year ago. The attack was revealed via e-mails that were stolen from a cyber-security company working for the bank. Falkenrath speaks with Erik Schatzler on Bloomberg Television's "InsideTrack." (Source: Bloomberg)

Morgan Stanley experienced a "very sensitive" break-in to its network by the same China-based hackers who attacked Google Inc.'s computers more than a year ago, according to e-mails stolen from a cyber-security company working for the bank.

The e-mails from the Sacramento, California-based computer security firm HBGary Inc., which identify the first financial institution targeted in the series of attacks, said the bank considered details of the intrusion a closely guarded secret.

"They were hit hard by the real Aurora attacks (not the crap in the news)," wrote Phil Wallisch, a senior security engineer at HBGary, who said he read an internal Morgan Stanley report detailing the so-called Operation Aurora attacks.

The nickname came from McAfee Inc., a Santa Clara, California-based cyber-security firm, which said the attacks occurred for about six months starting in June 2009 and marked "a watershed moment in cyber security." The number of companies known to be hit in the attacks was initially estimated at 20 to 30 and now exceeds 200, said Christopher Day, senior vice president for Terremark Worldwide Inc., which provides information-technology security services.

The HBGary e-mails don't indicate what information may have been stolen from Morgan Stanley's databanks or which of the world's largest merger adviser's multinational operations were targeted.

"They have given me access to a very sensitive report on their Aurora experience," Wallisch wrote in a May 10 e-mail to HBGary President Penny Leavy-Hoglund. "I will honor their wishes about not sharing the info with anyone, but the good news is that I have some great ideas for our final reports."

Sandra Hernandez, a spokeswoman for the New York-based bank, which unlike Google didn't disclose the attacks publicly, declined to comment on them specifically.

House Member Criticizes Internet Companies for Practices in China

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15 — In a crowded House hearing room,

Representative Christopher H. Smith, Republican of New Jersey, unleashed a scathing condemnation of four American Internet and technology companies — Google, Yahoo, Microsoft and Cisco — for a “decapitating the voice of the dissidents” there.

Mr. Smith's statements opened much anticipated hearings aimed at getting executives of the four companies to give a more complete accounting of their business dealings in China, and to air the concerns of critics who say the companies do business in China at the peril of human rights.

Among the chief issues is the alteration of online products in the Chinese market — from search engines to blogging tools — to conform with the repressive requirements of the government there.

Also of concern is the sale to China of Internet hardware that the Chinese government has been able to deploy in the surveillance of its online population, as well as the role American companies are being forced to play in the underdemocratic imprisonment of Chinese citizens for online behavior that in the West would be considered simple free speech.

I have never sent those invitations. Then, the Chinese military officer Guo used such kind emails to file lawsuit against me and put me into prison! It is no doubt that the Chinese military agents tried to my email accounts and then used my personal information to destroy my life in the United States!

感谢你邀请我们。

我们春节期间会到佛州迪斯尼世界去，我们在那里有三个卧室/礼拜，一年有26周可选。

12年前我们花10万美元买的。如今市价才10万。

我们因为懒得付900美元/年的税和服务费，打算这次去把它给卖了。10万就打算脱手。

如果卖不了，就捐给民运去用。

[REDACTED]去年就在那里开的年会。

如果你有这次聚会的照片，非常乐意看到。代表我问候所有献身民主事业的人，

简称民运人士。

可以将我们这个度假山庄的消息告诉[REDACTED]和你认为应该告诉的民运人士。

3个卧室，每个卧室可以合法住4个人。

每个卧室都带厨房，客厅，洗衣机 等生活设备一应俱全。

离迪斯尼世界乐园只有一英里。

刘刚兄，

这是第一个。附件里应该有木马。怀疑不只我一人收到。他们用的地址是 steellegang@gmail.com，比你的正版多了一个"l"。Email的内容看起来是动了脑筋的，比较有欺骗性。

因为我住[REDACTED]，所以觉得很奇怪。你在东岸的朋友们更容易上当。
